

Visitor management through Outlook

With ATLAS, visitor management is embedded in your daily tooling. Just select the location in your Outlook calendar and the visitor will be invited to download and register the app.

Just select the location of the visit in Outlook.

- >

How does it work?
- ATLAS provides all meeting attendees with access to the locks of the assigned meeting room. For external visitors, access is also granted to all other doors associated with the visitor user group.